CODE OF CONDUCT

Students are expected to participate in rehearsal activities and field trips, maintain a positive attitude, and show respect for others at all times. Students will receive a Community Guidelines Agreement, on which specific rules will be outlined, to bring home to be signed by their parent/guardian. This must be returned to OCSP staff within two rehearsal periods after receiving this document. Students are expected to be on time and present for all rehearsals. If a student needs to miss rehearsal or will be late to rehearsal, OCSP staff must be notified at least one day in advance (emergencies exempted). The Oberlin Children's Shakespeare Project reserves the right to remove any student who violates behavioral and/or attendance standards without a refund.

DRESS CODE

At OCSP students will study physical theater and must dress appropriately. Students are to wear clothing that allows them to move freely and that they are comfortable potentially dirtying (i.e., nothing restrictively tight, oversized, delicate, or formal). Students must wear socks and closed toed shoes. Students with long hair must have hair pulled back and away from their faces. No dangling jewelry. If students are not dressed appropriately, they may be asked to change clothing or leave.

WAIVER

Students participate in the Oberlin Children's Shakespeare Project at their own risk and waive the right to make any claims against OCSP for any injury, damage, or loss sustained while on the premises at the UU Fellowship or Oberlin College. OCSP is not responsible for theft, loss, or damage to students' personal belongings.

MEDICATION

OCSP staff members are not responsible for storing, distributing, or administering medication.

PHOTOGRAPHY AND PUBLICITY

OCSP activities and programs may be photographed, videotaped, or filmed for publicity and/or promotion of the Oberlin Children's Shakespeare Project. Students who do not want to be photographed or filmed may submit a written statement to Eric Steggall, OCSP Executive Director.
